High School Will Need Three New Rooms and Two Extra Teachers This Fall.

The town school committee is about to face an important matter that will have to be decided soon, probably at this month's meeting. Their attention will be occupied with preparations for handling the increased attendance at the Windham high school this fall.

Principal John J. Maddox of the school states that there will be at least fifty more pupils the ensuing year than the one just closed and that three more rooms will be necessary. Additional teachers will be needed. There is also talk of engaging rooms in the normal school or the old First district school for the accommodation of the entire entering class.

School facilities never were so cramped in the town and city as at present.

Opening Night of Lawn Fete for Free Bed Fund of St. Joseph's Hospital.

The two days' lawn fete at the Nat-chaug school grounds, given under the auspices of the ladies' auxiliary to St. Joseph's hospital, opened most auspiciously Thursday evening. A large number was in attendance and success from every standpoint.

A large platform in the center of the school yard was used for dancing and was surrounded with festoons of electric lights that lighted up a pretty and animated scene. Decorations of laurel, fir trees, bunting and Chinese lanterns added to the brilliant effect.

Booths were arranged at strategic points about the grounds, which fancy work, flowers, candy and refreshments met with ready sale.

Whist and other games were enjoyed. Slight sooting short tours were conducted by the management in automobiles donated by Mr. Chesbro and Mr. Hills.

The entertainment programme on Thursday evening comprised: Concert by Wheeler's American band, 7:30 o'clock; poppy drill by twelve girls from St. Joseph's school, 8 to 8:15; ball drill by pupils, 8:15 to 8:30; dancing to music by Thread City Cyclers orchestra, 8:30 to 9:30; Maypole dance, 9:30 to 10:30; dancing, 10 to 11:30 o'clock.
